

A wedding couple is captured in a joyful moment, jumping from a wooden pier over a calm lake. The groom, on the left, is wearing a dark suit and white shoes, with his arms raised in a 'V' sign. The bride, on the right, is wearing a white wedding dress and holding a bouquet of flowers, also with her arms raised. The background features a vast lake reflecting the sky, with a range of green mountains under a bright blue sky with scattered white clouds. The overall mood is celebratory and scenic.
